

Maharashtra Education society's
Institute of Management and Career Courses (IMCC), Pune

Student Centric Methods

Institute provides conducive ICT enabled infrastructure which facilitates better course delivery, improves student outcomes, strengthens student engagement and positively affects the learning process of students. The institute facilitates all possible efforts for development of students through various student centric teaching-learning methods.

Experiential Learning

Following experiential learning practices are imparted to enhance creativity and cognitive levels of the students –

Sr. No.	Details
1	Laboratory Practical Sessions
2	Mini Project Work
3	Student Centric ICT Tools and Platforms
4	Industry Projects
5	Industry Visits
6	Add on Courses
7	Training Programs
8	Industry Expert Talks
9	Open Courses
10	Role Play
11	Simulation Exercises
12	Poster Presentation

Maharashtra Education society's
Institute of Management and Career Courses (IMCC), Pune

Participative Learning

The classroom environment is kept conducive to make learners feel free to share their ideas, experiences and form a healthy discussion.

Sr. No.	Details
1	Flipped Classroom
2	Tutorials
3	Case Study
4	Quizzes
5	Intercollegiate Competitions
6	CSI Activities- Code Yoda, Quiz Competitions
7	Publishing a Research Paper

Problem Solving Methodologies

Students acquire and develop problem-solving skills through following activities

Sr. No.	Details
1	Mini Project
2	Course Tutorials based on problems
3	Presentations on course topics
4	Situation Analysis
5	Scrapbook

Dr. Girish Bodhankar

Programme Coordinator
MBA

Dr. Ashwini Patil

Programme Coordinator
MCA

Dr. Santosh Deshpande

Director

