Topic – New Normal HR Policy - Work from Home Policies

Event date -Date: 9 Sept. 2020

Competition for Policy guidelines designed by employers provide a framework to employees to clarify their rights and responsibilities while they're employed with the company. It also provides them with a clear idea about expected behavior in the organization.

You are expected to design HR policies for the topic mentioned above as a guideline for your employees considering current COVID 19 pandemic situations. Assume that you are working as Head of Human Resource Department in a successful organization.

You can make your own assumptions about the company name, its business, number of employees and year of its inception etc.

Time given for the activity was – 12 Hrs.

The activity was judged based on the basis of following criteria –

- i. Clarity and details of policy
- ii. Understanding of the concept
- iii. Practical assumptions
- iv. Feasibility of implementation.

Winner

Fund ka Funda

Date: 9 Sept 2020

Time: 13:30 am

P&A is the process of determining how your company will afford to achieve its vision, strategic goals, and objectives.

To inculcate this planning and analysis attitude in students, "Fund ka Funda -Financial Planning for Start-ups" competition was organized for MBA second year students.

Judgment was made based on –

1. Start-up Plan (In detail)
2. Estimation of fund requirement.
3. How to procure funds for start-ups.
4. Estimated future returns from investment.

Managing Aptitude and Logical Reasoning

Date: 26th September 2020

Guest Speaker: Mr. Mayur Makhija

Target Audience : MBA

Lecture Summary:

As a part of IMCCTALKATHON lecture series, a guest lecture of Mr. Mayur Makhija was organized by the Training Cell. Guest lecture topic was "Managing Aptitude and Logical Reasoning". The speaker spoke live from Aurangabad and around 350 students attended this lecture online through Zoom platform. Mr. Makhija is founder of CROSS Q which is an online training institute that trains students for competitive exams, CAT, MBA CET, etc. He is an Engineering graduate with 8 years of teaching experience and prior experience in the field of banking. This lecture was arranged after taking a meeting of MCA second and third year students wherein they expressed need for additional help in aptitude and logical reasoning in order to perform better during campus interviews. Following points were covered by the speaker during his 1 hour lecture :

Important points in aptitude from hiring interview point of view Importance of regular practice. Some tips and tricks to handle common questions in aptitude. Helpful reference books, sites and online sources for preparation. Session was followed by question answers. Students asked a variety of questions and these were aptly answered by the guest speaker. He also shared links and numbers of his YouTube channel and WhatsApp group to help students further in their preparation. Towards the end of the lecture a feedback form was shared with students. Around 250 students responded with their feedback and majority of them rated the speaker as well as lecture as Very Good and informative.

Due to the lockdown our colleges, school or any education institutions are closed yet the IMCC college started online lectures. They took this step so that there is no gap in students' education. So, the institute did not stop in pandemic to spread words of wisdom to its beloved students. It also arranged some online lectures (other than syllabus) which can be useful to students in future.
